

Electrical Drafter

Bi-Con Engineering (BCE), located near Cambridge, Ohio, is an Engineering firm within the Natural Gas Industry providing complete engineering and design solutions. BCE is currently seeking an Electrical Drafter. Primary responsibilities include producing two-dimensional and three-dimensional construction drawings including plans, sections, elevations, details, bills of material, and schematics from models and sketches under the direction of an engineer or designer.

Primary duties include:

- Complete redline drawings accurately and timely.
- Accountability check of drawings.
- Apply company or customer CAD standards to drawings.
- Scanning, coping and plotting drawings.
- Site visits / field measurements of existing conditions.
- Drawing coordination with other disciplines.
- Other duties as assigned

An Associate's degree or higher in Drafting and Design, Engineering Technology or related field. AutoCAD experience required. AutoCAD Electrical, CADWorx, Microstation, Navisworks, and Bluebeam experience a plus. A basic understanding of Microsoft Office Suite and Adobe Acrobat required as well as good communication and analytical skills.

Bi-Con Engineering offers a competitive wage and benefits package.

Applicants should email resumes to:
employment@bi-conservices.com
or submit your resume online:
www.bi-conengineering.com

An Equal Opportunity Employer